

CCL and ESCC Standout Boys Basketball Seniors to Compete in All-Star Game April 12 at Dominican

Chicago, Illinois – April 8, 2024 – Some of the top high school boys' basketball seniors from the Chicago Catholic League (CCL) and East Suburban Catholic Conference (ESCC) will compete in the annual CCL-ESCC All-Star game on April 12 at the Igini Sports Forum on the campus of Dominican University in River Forest, Illinois. Tipoff is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. CT and admission is $5 for all entrants.

"This a great opportunity for our seniors to showcase their skills one more time before they graduate," said Erin Dwyer, head coach at St. Francis and coach of the CCL All-Stars. "A majority of the young men participating in this All-Star game will be playing in college, so this is a great chance for basketball fans to enjoy a highly competitive game among some of the top players in the Chicago area."

"Our guys are excited to compete against the CCL All-Stars and we are looking forward to a great night of basketball," said Rick Romeli, head coach at Marian Catholic and coach of the ESCC All-Stars. "All of the players in this game were either selected All-State, All-Area or All-Conference so fans will get to see some of the premier players in the area."

The roster for the ESCC All-Stars includes:

- Benet: Parker Sulaver and Patrick Walsh
- Joliet Catholic Academy: James Pilapil and Drew Willis
